iots whose glutenous gormandizing would sicken the stomach of a dog; and promising little children were learning table manners from imbeciles, vagabonds and tramps; all for the want of sufficient means

I observed in the side-rooms on the secand floor several old ladies whose better days have been spent in patient toil helping to reclaim this county from a howling wilderness, and now in the helplessness of age and deserted by friends and kindged, they have sought a refuge here. I observed, too, that the stairways and halls lead-
